

Indiana Government Center

Indianapolis, Indiana

Client: Indiana State Office Building Commission

Project Size: 12 blocks

- An environment that artfully represents the cultural, legislative and historical importance of state government to the citizens of Indiana
- Limestone knee walls, light bollards and historical markers create a formal and public government center
- Long, stately loggias run the entire frontage of the State Building, offering pedestrians shade and protection from rain

